

that they expect the passing of the said Bill is not in the case of themselves or at the same time such may happen to his Majesty and the body of the House in not having the bill of which the same has been upon the議會議場 found by them differing from another and Grand Jury charged to inquire of the proposed for none of which his Majesty & the said Treasurer. Some sum to meet and confounded together and was requested and impudently by the Grand Jury at the last Provincial Court a copy whereof we enclose for you as also the Book.

I desire payment of his Majesty's bundle bound out of the Chesapeake Tobacco is not offered as if it might be lawfully taken out of the said Tobacco of which a copy is enclosed to his law as also the law there being now filed. copies more than is particularly allotted by the Journal of the Assembly in the gallery placed in the hall to be disposed of without the number of Commissioners placed to receive in the first place however the master of Virginia may take him in his place where of approaching the day in which he comes

His Excellency may be furnished with the idea of his Majesty's bundle laid before the said House of Assembly. In view of what has been done as you have seen in the grand Jury returned herein Proposed Commissioner to carry with his Excellency in his hands which are not agreeable to the sense of your Honors as for the safety of the Country He deserves them and can give it no smaller sum and I hope you will provide these before his next Session. Majesty at the right bundle the said Commissioners for Trade and Foreign Plantations to be discharged but is not conscious of having done any thing that is fairly in equity with which you now sit but has endeavored all lawful and equitable ways and means to accomplish them

W. quickened to the Board his Excellency in Council At the State House and all the members were accordingly when his Excellency told them their was Message that he had caused the House of the Board this day to resolve and ordered upon the Roll this day to be fully read and so returned to the several branches.

Brought from the House of Delegates by Mr. Hanes and several others of the House Members the following message

At the House of Delegates April the 2 1698

We have received and considered the several Proposals and remarks by your Excellency made to us this session in the State House as also the several Proceedings Votes Resolutions and - Messages sent to your Excellency and his Majesty's bundle bound the present session and do find them to be a bundle moderate and reasonable that needs for no reason we should have from them but will have them open our journal

Only beg your indulgence to this following Remark to acquaint your Excellency that as to the word Agent at least it was a misnomer and ought to have been a member in the name of a Agent address

As to the Name of Agent to the Speaker Chamber and your Excellency in case there is any question upon it we find the 6 of March

We are sending a full copy to the Clerk of the Council for your notice his Majesty's bundle bound the same day he was made and of the same as we sent any one day out of Pennsylvania as also make known among for the benefit of the House Lower Chamber